

COMMANDS,
TRUTHS &
PROMISES OF PROVERBS

Welcome

Welcome to Commands, Truths & Promises of Proverbs! We will read through Proverbs, applying what we learned from the How to Read the Bible for Yourself seminar. In case you missed it or need a refresher, you can find the videos at KathrynEntrekin.com/ForYourself or using the QR code below:

The Book of Proverbs

The book of Proverbs is attributed to King Solomon and a few other wise men. Broadly, it contrasts wisdom and folly, metaphorically describing each as a woman. Remember that proverbs are not guarantees (promises), but they are principles (truths). For a video of the book's context, check out the Bible Project video at the link/QR code below:

Day 1: Proverbs 1:1-16

Pray that the Holy Spirit would help you understand, interpret, and apply what you read today.

- Read through the passage once.
- Reread the passage and list the commands (tells you what to do or not do) (if there are several, choose 3-5):

- Reread the passage and list the truths (statement of fact) (if there are several, choose 3-5):

- Reread the passage and list the promises (if there are several, choose 3-5):

- What do you learn about wisdom from this passage? (Example: Wisdom can come from listening and learning, v. 5)

- What do you learn about foolishness from this passage? (Example: Sin and folly are enticing, attractive, and destructive, v. 10-12)

- Write out an application statement below from what you learned about wisdom and foolishness. (Example: I want to be more aware of the ways I find sin attractive.)

- Write out your application in the form of a prayer, confessing sin or asking God for help. (Example: Father, please help me to be more aware of when sin calls me away from you. Help me to recognize when I find it attractive and change my heart to long for your wisdom instead of the flashy beauty of sin.)
